

2023 Newsletter

- We awarded three new scholarships at the University of New Mexico bringing our three- year total awarded to $6,600. You can read about our newest scholars below.
- The endowed scholarship at the University of New Mexico has increased to over $66k which allows us to continue increasing the number and value of future scholarship awards.
- At California State University, Long Beach, we raised over $8K with our annual ABT No Bounds Tennis Fundraiser! With a total of $20,939, we are 84% towards our endowment goal of $25k. Once we reach endowment, we will be able to begin awarding scholarships at CSULB!
- The scholarship has now raised a cumulative total of $87k! This year's fundraising included our second annual tennis tournament hosted by BTG Tennis, continued royalties from Anne's memoir and audiobook, and, of course, your continued individual donations! See a list of our 2022-23 sponsors below.

Thank you for all your support – without you, the scholarship would not be where it is today!

2023 Anne B. Thomas No Bounds Scholars

UNM – Daniel Feng

Major: Biochemistry in the 2022 BA/MD cohort at UNM

Career Goal: To provide high quality medical care to others in my home of NM.

“My disability has never stopped me from excelling in academics and community services to reach my highest potential and pursue my true dream.” –Daniel Feng

UNM – Ethan Van

Major: Double major in Psychology and Religious Studies

Career Goal: I would like to work specifically with individuals who experience intersecting LGBTQIA+ and religious identities. Additionally, I am interested in teaching college level students to help foster the growth of more counselors in the community.

“I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the donors who provided funding for the Anne B. Thomas No Bounds Scholarship. My area of research is not widely studied, and having individuals provide support while I am building my career means the world to me” - Ethan Van

UNM – Scholar 3

Major: UNM Business School

“Anne B. Thomas had a will to succeed and overcome any adversity in front of her. These same values were instilled in me through sports and are values I would be honored to carry forward as an Anne B. Thomas scholarship recipient.” – Scholar 3
